Khloé's Humiliation

Betrayed by Lamar ... AGAIN!

Coming On to His Ex!

When Khloé finds out Lamar has been trying to hook up with his ex Liza Morales, "she will completely lose it," says an insider. "She hates Liza. She's probably the worst person he could make a pass at."

After Khloé Kardashian caves and gives him another chance, Lamar Odom goes back to his old ways

It wasn't easy for Khloé Kardashian to give Lamar Odom a second chance after filing for divorce nearly four months ago. "It's definitely not anything I'm through," Khloé admitted on March 17 of her painful journey, including years of reports that husband Lamar Odom was unfaithful and allegations last summer that he was also in the throes of drug addiction. "I'm going through it, but I'm not through it."

And she won't be anytime soon. Just days after In Touch exclusively revealed that Khloé had decided to reconsider the divorce after a mid-March heart-to-heart with Lamar, sources say he's already betrayed her — not only propositioning his ex Liza Morales but also flirting with other women. "When Khloé finds out, she will be completely devastated," says an insider. "She was finally happy and ready to move on, then Lamar reeled her back. Another betrayal is going to leave her emotionally crushed."

Lamar, who married Khloé in 2009 after they'd dated for just one month, wants her to believe he's a new man. But shortly after arriving on March 10 in his hometown of NYC, where he's being treated for a back injury he got while playing basketball in Spain, his behavior turned shady. Lamar, 34, reached out to his ex, who lives in New York, about visiting their two kids, Destiny 15, and Lamar Jr., 12, from their 10-year relationship. "He got dirty with Liza over the phone, acting like he wanted to hook up with her again," says a source. "Liza laughed at him. But if he's trying to get things better with Khloé, she'd better watch out, because Lamar is still creeping."

And not just with his ex. While Khloé, 29, was home in LA awaiting his return — and reportedly adding a subterranean basketball court to the $7.2 million home she recently purchased — Lamar was spotted flirting with two women in the lobby of the Aloft Harlem Hotel early in the morning on March

He's sweet and loving around Khloé, then he's a dog behind her back”

— KARDASHIAN FAMILY FRIEND

14, according to an eyewitness. That's just his nature, says a family friend: "He knows how to make women feel special. They just melt around him."

Eventually Khloé may have to acknowledge that his bad behavior won't ever stop. "Women do this all the time, thinking, 'Maybe I didn't try hard enough,'" marriage counselor Carolyn Bushong, who has not worked with them, tells In Touch. "Then when they give him that second chance and he screws up again, they're deeply devastated. But often it takes that to move on."

Khloé's loved ones are desperately hoping she's finally ready to do just that. "It's sad. She does love him and she's already been through so much," says the insider. "Him doing this again is just the ultimate insult." ■

Khloé Had Given Him New Rules

1. KEEP IN CONTACT

"Khloé set serious boundaries," says an insider. No. 1: Lamar must always keep a phone on him. "Any wife wants to be able to contact her husband."

2. NO PARTYING

"It always annoyed Khloé to see pictures of Lamar at clubs when he was away," says the Kardashian insider. "And she has a zero-tolerance policy on drugs. He would have to be and stay clean."

3. NO BACHELOR PAD

During their marriage, Lamar spent many nights at his downtown LA loft. Says the insider, "It gave Khloé massive anxiety about what he was up to."

4. GO TO COUPLES THERAPY

"Khloé would want them to talk through their problems with a therapist," says the Kardashian insider. "So that would be a condition of any reconciliation."
